I think its the ERP Program for Phase II of Calfed. How that relates to BDCP, DRERIP, Stewart Segal's stuff, I do not know. But it doesn't look like its got much on wq.

Oh that's not good (if you don't know what it is). If you look at the Delta Vision website and the meeting materials for tomorrow's meeting (or Thursday's), there is this 66 page draft ERP Conservation strategy, apparently prepared by FWS, NMFS, and DFG. I'm guessing it has something to do with the BDCP, but I thought you were all plugged into the BDCP science effort. So I have no idea what it is, what it's supposed to "drive" or whether it's any good.

Maybe Karen knows....

I'm sorry I have no idea, can you give me a clue?

What is this thing?

So what exactly is the big new draft EPA Conservation Strategy? (Version 1.6, 66 pages or so, released as a draft in early December).

What does it do, who is supposed to rely on it, who is actually preparing it, etc. etc.?
